LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIESItems of Street and Town too Brief for Separate Heads.

The Sierra Club gave another party last night. Several busloads went out from Reno.

An eight-horse gang plow is rippling up University avenue, preparatory to regrading the street.

The capitalization of the Reno Mill and Lumber Company has been increased from $50,000 to $100,000.

When the two proposed buildings at the University are erected the grounds will begin to take the appearance of a quadrangle.

A steam pump has been ordered for use in the main shaft at Steamboat.
The water is now coming in too rapidly to handle with a hand pump.

Seven building contracts have been called off within the past ten days on account of the impossibility of obtaining insurance under the existing law.

Papers were filed yesterday by F. M.
Hopkins, beginning suit against the Great Western Compound and Development Company for the recovery of certain stock in that corporation.

Burnham Found Guilty.

Charles Burnham, charged with petty larceny, was found guilty in Justice Linn's court yesterday afternoon.

The offense alleged was taking a watch from Harry Sellers. The prosecuting witness and Constable Leeper were placed on the stand, after which the State rested. The witnesses for the defense were Robert Eariston, Ed Fallon and the defendant.

Justice Linn found Burnham guilty as charged. He will receive sentence this morning.

Another Action.

Truly the affairs of the Reno Smelting & Milling company have fallen into evil ways. The suit against this corporation by the Bank of Nevada is not yet settled, and now comes the Reno Mill & Lumber company with a batch of claims, suing for satisfaction of the same. Papers, beginning suit, were filed yesterday.

Amateurs in Opera.

Rehearsals of "The Mikado" continue daily. Although several members of the Reno Dramatic Club are in the cast, the opera is not being put on by them as a club, but by Reno amateurs collectively.

MURDER
CHARGEDMILKMAID SOCIAL

Joaquin Alansino Is Dead and His Slayer Is Held to Answer.

Joaquin Alansino, who was shot near Central Pacific depot Thursday night, died at the county hospital yester-morning a little after 10 o'clock. His slayer, Elmo Soso, has been committed to the charge of murder.

The bullet penetrated his bowels and death resulted from inward bleeding.

The body was removed to the morgue.
An autopsy and inquest will be held this morning.

Stories of the killing differ. It is certain, however, that all parties had been drinking. The deceased, especially, was under the influence of liquor at the time of the tragedy.

Some witnesses say that the killing was cold-blooded and unprovoked murder. It is said that the man who was shot was standing with his hands in his pockets and had neither knife nor gun in his possession.

Other witnesses will say that the murdered man received only his just deserts, that he was trying to pick a quarrel in order that his friends might have an excuse for killing him.
It is doubtless true that there had been bad feeling between the men for some time and that they had quarreled on several occasions the day of the shooting.

Alansino is from Bakersfield, Calif.
He has a brother living in Santa Barbara.
He owned a little real estate in the latter town. It was his dying wish that his body be sent to Santa Barbara for burial and that the property be used to defray the expenses of transporting his body and burial.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served in the dining hall.

A New Enterprise.

William L. Semenza is shelling a stock of groceries at No. 17 East Second street in the Crosby block. The store will be ready for business Monday morning. Mr. Semenza is from Virginia, where he was engaged in the grocery business for many years. He requests a share of the public patronage.

The Dead Speaks.

Even if the affair be rather grim-some to joke about, one could not suppress a smile as he read the Gazette's account of the late shooting affair.
That paper stated that District Attorney Pike and a steamer crew had read the victim's "post-mortem" statement.

A Big Petition.

John Sunderland and Edward Barber of the Reno Mercantile Company are circulating a petition to Governor

Sadler, requesting him to call a special session of the legislature to repeal the Hardesty insurance bill. It is being liberally signed.

George Lamy, editor of the Gardner-ville Record, was in town yesterday.

Wm. Sauer returned yesterday morning from Oklahoma, where he was called by the illness of his father.

Baseball Game.

A game of baseball will be played on the University campus to-day between the Varsity team and a nine from the Reno Wheelmen. Following are the positions of the latter team:

Pitcher and left field, Leonard and Hewlett; shortstop, Kinney; first base, Frazee; second base, Mozingo; center field, Hopper; catcher, Radcliffe; right field, Perry; third base, Daizell.

Brought Them Back.

Constable Leeper took the early morning train yesterday for Wadsworth and brought back the four Spaniards who were witnesses to the shooting the previous night. The men will be detained until after they give testimony at the trial.

Easter Flowers.

Manheim is now ready to take orders for Easter flowers. Calla lilies, 50c a dozen. Expressage prepaid. 27mtf
